Student-at-Large Application for Admission
Students of our international partners are welcome to take advantage of UChicago’s extraordinary faculty and course offerings. Accepted applicants will be registered as international student-at-large and will not be considered degree-seeking candidates at the University. Earned credit through studying at UChicago can be transferable to students’ home institutions.

In addition to the application, we shall need the following information:

1. At least one letter of recommendation from a professor who is familiar with the applicant’s work.
2. Official academic records (official transcripts along with translations if necessary; pertinent examination results).
3. A Curriculum Vitae (including basic information about previous education, and a list of the courses an applicant may be taking while submitting the application, and for which grades may have not been received yet).
4. Proof of English language competence through one of the following: 600 or higher on the old paper-based TOEFL, or 250 or higher on the computer-based TOEFL, or 104 or higher on the new Internet-based TOEFL, or a minimum IELTS overall score of 7, with sub scores of 7 each.
